Transform is fully committed to the principle that living a life free from harm and abuse is a fundamental right of everyone. We are committed to working in partnership with others to protect those at risk, while supporting those at risk to make their own choices.

Adult safeguarding means protecting a person's right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect.

Attached files

Policy: Safeguarding